REPORT NO.

A resident representative of Ho Chih Min arrived in Peiping about four months ago.* He has full powers to negotiate all questions on behalf of the Viet Minh.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment. It is believed that these negotiations are on a party rather than a government basis, as CHOU En-lai only recently heard by accident that the representative was in Peiping.

25X1A* [REDACTED] Comment. It may be that this representative traveled to Peiping as part of the group from Indochina who attended the conference of the World Federation of Trade Unions in December 1949.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
